

Name
Izabela Mironowicz

Association of European Schools of Planning (AESOP)

AESOP Vice-Secretary General.

Qualified in architecture from Wrocław University of Technology obtained post-graduate diploma in urban design and spatial planning. Her PhD thesis discussing spatial patterns of business services was awarded the prize of the Minister of Urban and Regional Development of the Republic of Poland.

Her research interests focus on urban development and urban transformations. She is deeply involved in international cooperation in teaching planning. She runs big international planning workshops as a Head Coordinator. Her activities within AESOP focus on core curricula and education-practice relationships. She contributed UN-Habitat's Global Report on Human Settlements 2009. During 24th AESOP Congress in Helsinki Izabela was elected as new AESOP Secretary General.