Circular Cities and Regions

Planning for Sustainable Social and Inclusive Communities

17th – 20th March 2025 in Hanover

5 / 12

Welcome to the „Circular Cities and Regions: Planning for Sustainable Social and Inclusive Communities“ AESOP YA Conference. We are thrilled to have you join us for this transformative exploration into the future of urban and regional planning, with a dedicated focus on fostering sustainable and inclusive communities. The conference will be hosted by Young Academics from the Faculty of Architecture and Landscape Sciences (FAL) at Gottfried Wilhelm Leibniz University Hannover. The conference is funded by the Ministry of Science and Culture of Lower Saxony (“Programm zukunft.niedersachsen”) and from the Faculty of Architecture and Landscape Sciences Hanover (FAL).
